Weather information

Greece has a Mediterranean climate with plenty of sunshine, mild temperatures, and a limited amount of rainfall. Due to the country's geographical position, its rugged relief and its distribution between the mainland and the sea, there is great variation in Greece's climate:

- In summer, the dry hot days are cooled by seasonal winds called meltemi, while mountainous regions have generally lower temperatures.
- Winters are mild in lowland areas, with a minimum amount of snow and ice, yet, mountains are usually snow-covered. Moreover, a common phenomenon is the occurrence of different climactic conditions during the same season (for instance, mild heat in coastal areas and cool temperatures in mountainous regions).

National Celebrations & Holidays

- 1st of January: New Year's Day.
- 6th of January: Epiphany: Sea water is consecrated in many local ports. The priests throw the Cross into the sea and young men dive to catch it.
- Ash Monday / Shrove Monday (Orthodox): 41 days before Easter. Also referred as Koulouma by the Greeks. It is the day people begin the Lent. People fly kites and eat meatless food.
- 25th of March: Independence Day and Celebration of Evangelism (Orthodox): Military parade in many cities.
- Easter (Orthodox): From Holy Friday (Good Friday) until Easter Monday:
- On Holy Friday evening each church decorates the Epitaph (Bier of Christ). During the procession of the Epitaph the streets are full of people holding lit candles in their hands and singing hymns.
- The Night of the Resurrection is celebrated at midnight before Easter Sunday with fireworks and candles.
- On Easter Sunday Greeks eat impale lamb. The celebrations include singing and dancing.
- 1st of May: Labor Day: Flower feasts around Greece.
- Pentecost / Whit Monday (Orthodox): Celebrated 50 days after Easter.
- 15th of August (Orthodox): Assumption Day of the Virgin Mary.
- 28th of October: National Holiday. Military parade in many cities.

Zakynthos Island

General Information

Zakynthos ['zakinθos], also known as Zante, is the third largest (after Corfu and Cephalonia) and the southernmost of the six main Ionian Sea islands. It covers an area of 406 km² (158 sq. mi) and its coastline is roughly 123 km (76 mi) in length. The capital is the town of Zakynthos, having the same name as the prefecture. Apart from the official name it is also called Chora (i.e. the Town, a common denomination in Greece when the name of the island itself is the same as the name of the principal town). According to the 2001 census, the island has a population of 38,957. The island's port is also located in Zakynthos town.

Geography

Zante is a verdant island endowed with fertile valleys and a temperate climate. Its landscape diversity has resulted in different types of beaches: there are sandy beaches in secluded coves where the tranquil waters are deep blue on the island's southeastern part; yet, if rugged cliffs and an interesting underwater world are to your liking, try the western part of the island.

History

The Venetians, who ruled Zakynthos from 1484 to 1797, called the island "Fioro di Levante" (flower of the East) as there are over 7,000 species of flowers on the island. The island is named after Jakynthos who is said to have been the island's first inhabitant. He was the son of Dardanos, ruler of the ancient kingdom of Frigia. The ancient acropolis was attributed to him. A Venetian fort was built at later times on the site.

The Venetian architectural influence has left its stamp on Zante despite the damage sustained due to the seismic activity in the area. After the ravaging 1953 earthquake and the ensuing fire, several historical buildings and churches burned to the ground. Consequently, the significant treasures these buildings were housing perished. The town was rebuilt according to a plan where strict anti-seismic specifications applied and, to a large extent, respecting the town's former architectural structure.

Culture

Events

Zakynthos is famous for its cultural life. Some of the famous cultural events include:

- Carnival: A traditional town crier goes around the island proclaiming the program of the Carnival festivities. On the last Sunday of the Carnival is the procession of the Carnival King. The festivities end with the “Mask Funeral”.
- Litany and artistic events in the memory of Aghios Dionysios on August 24th and December 17th.
- Easter: The Holy Week in Zakynthos has its own character with ancient customs and an exceptional rite as far as the religious ceremonies are concerned. The celebration of Holy Week on Zakynthos Island is considered to be unique and unforgettable both for locals and visitors to the island. At noon, on Good Friday, crowds of worshippers take part in the procession of the Crucified through the town.
In the early hours of Holy Saturday morning and starting from the Aghios Nikolaos (St Nicolas) cathedral, the epitaph procession takes place in accordance with the local ancient custom, while the bishop announces the Resurrection at sunrise. At the first chime of the bell, the Bishop lets white doves free while from the bell tower clay vessels are thrown onto the road just as is done by all the inhabitants of the island out of their windows.
- Religious countryside festivals (paniyíria) in multiple spots of the island, usually taken place during summer period.

Cuisine

Numerous restaurants and taverns offer a wide selection of dishes from fusion to traditional Zakynthian cuisine whether you sit on the seaside or having a panoramic view over a cliff.

Sights & Activities

On Foot

Zakynthos town is at the same time the island port. Despite of the fact that it suffered significant damage after the 1953 earthquakes, it preserves many of the magnificent elements of the past. Take a tour around the city and visit:

- The Solomos Square surrounded by buildings with characteristic traditional architectural features of the island, arch-shaped windows, and arcades. The bust of D. Solomos national poet of Greece dominates in the center. Here you can also find the Public Library (with 55.000 volumes), the Post-Byzantine Museum of Zante exhibiting treasures such as statues trimmed with gold, icons and art woodcuts.
- The Post-Byzantine Museum of Zakynthos in Solomos square, exhibits treasures such as statues trimmed with gold, icons, and art woodcuts.
- The coastal road known as Strata Marina (K. Lomvardou street), which is one of the most frequented part of the city, with cafes, bars, and restaurants, from the Solomos Square up to the church of the patron-saint Aghios Dionysios.
- The Aghios Markos (San Marco) square. Here, in 1797, the revolutionaries (popolaroi) burnt the Libro d' Oro and planted the tree of freedom. This paved square is the main meeting point for locals and visitors. Here, you will find the Museum of Solomos, Kalvos and Eminent Zakynthians which also hosts the bust of the Greek national poet, created by Georgios Broutos in 1902.
- Rouga: Its name is Alexandros Romas street, starting at Aghios Markos Square crossing almost the whole town. This street with the impressive arcades has been the main commercial center of the city for centuries.
- The Venetian Castle situated on a hill overhanging the town in the place of the old acropolis named Psosis.
- Strani's hill (Lofos Strani), 2 km away from the town, offering a great view. Here, the poet Dionysios Solomos inspired the 'Hymn to Liberty' (later the Greek national anthem) and the "Free Besieged" attending the siege of the city of Messolonghi.

Beaches

Zakynthos offers everyone a beach of his/her own taste. From long, shallow water sandy beaches to small, deep, crystal water pebbled beaches, organized, or isolated; at least one beach will definitely fit in one's heart.

National Marine Park of Zakynthos

On Zante, great care is taken to protect two endangered animal species, namely the caretta-caretta sea turtle and the monachus-monachus seal. The National Marine Park of Zakynthos encompasses the marine area of the Bay of Lagana, the sea turtle nesting beaches and a zone of land adjoining them, the wetland of Keri Beach (Limni Keri) and the two small Strophades islands. It includes a total of 36 km² of terrestrial territory and another 90 km² of marine area. Zakynthos is one of the most important sea turtle nesting areas in the Mediterranean. The area features a variety of habitats, including sand dunes and Posidonia oceanica beds. It is home to the critically endangered Sea daffodil (Pancratium maritimum), and submerged reefs as well as hundreds of species of flora and fauna, some of which are of great importance. A resident population of the critically endangered species the Mediterranean monk seal monachus-monachus is also present on the west coast of the island.

During your stay, don't forget to visit the Thematic Exhibition Centre and the nesting beaches of the loggerhead sea turtle caretta-caretta! For more information click at www.nmp-zak.org

Island Cruises

Navagio Beach (Shipwreck or Smuggler's Wreck)

Probably the most photographed site on the island; has become the emblem of Zante over the last few years. Deep turquoise waters, white sand garnished with a smuggler's shipwreck made this beach the very don't-miss spot of Zakynthos – just don't miss it. Daily cruises from multiple points on the island (port of Aghios Nikolaos Volimon, Anafonitria, Porto Vromi, Schinari).

Ghalazies Spilies (Blue Caves)

The famous blue caves are some of the most beautiful in Greece, located in the NE coast of Schinari peninsula. The reflection and diffusion of sunlight on the waters trigger a riot of color. Visitors can go up to Aghios Nikolaos by car (asphalted road) and then continue by boat.

Marathonissi & Keri Caves

Don't miss cruising to Marathonissi (also known as Turtle Island), an islet located just a few paddles from Keri Beach. Turquoise beaches and tropical vegetation are the material this small paradise is made of. Hire a boat, a canoe, or join an organized cruise from Keri Beach. You should also include Keri Caves in the same cruise: Unique monuments of nature such as caves and spectacular rocky arches dive into the Ionian Sea blue.

Strophades (Strofadia)

Two small and isolated islands emerging from the waters of the Ionian Sea at 45 km SW of Zante and 78 km to the west of cape Katakolo of the Peloponnese. During the ancient times they were known as "Plota Nisia" (floating islands) because it really looks as if they were floating. The bigger of the two is known as Stamfani, while the smaller one is Arpyia (Arpina). A ledge links the two islets together. In Arpyia you will find the majestic monastery of Metamorfosi (13th century) surrounded by high walls. The patron-saint of Zante Aghios Dionysios lived here.

Scuba Diving

Discover Zante's underwater treasures by checking in at one of Zante's diving centers using the following link:

www.dive-centers.net/diving-zakynthos_island-15-diving-greece-28.html

Horse Riding

Whether you like horse riding on the beach or in the woods, Zakynthos has to offer a horse-riding club for every taste. Try Ampelostrates if you want to combine riding in the woods with local food, agro-touristic and cultural activities (www.ampelostrates.com).

Churches & Monasteries

- Aghios Nikolaos tou Molou (Solomou Square): a church of Renaissance order (17th century) with a belfry dating back to the Byzantine period. Aghios Dionysios lived here in 1853.
- Aghios Dionysios (just opposite the new pier of Zakynthos port): where the relic of the patron-saint of the island is kept in a silver larnax.
- Aghios Markos (in Ag. Markos Square): The belfry of this Catholic Church built in 1516 is a copy of the one of Saint Mark's basilica in Venice.
- Aghios Georgios: The army commanders Kolokotronis, Nikitaras, Fotomaras as well as other fighters of the 1821 Revolution took their vows on the icon which is kept in this church.
- Panaghia Ipikardiotissa at the outskirts of Zakynthos castle.
- The monastery of Anafoníttria, on the northwest of the island.

Climate

The mild, Mediterranean climate and the plentiful winter rainfall endow the island with dense vegetation. The principal products are olive oil, currants, grapes and citrus fruit. Alykes area, where Kanela Studios is located, enjoys average temperatures according to the following table:

By Ferry

Direct ferries are scheduled from multiple Italian ports (Ancona, Bari, Brindisi, Venice) to Patras (60 km / approx. 45-minute drive from Kyllini Port). Drive or take an intercity bus to the port of Kyllini to catch the ferry to Zakynthos Main Port (1 hr. and 15 minutes).

There is also ferry from Brindisi, Italy to multiple Ionian Islands including Zakynthos during summer period only.

If your previous destination is Cephalonia (Kefalonia) Island, you can come to Zakynthos by catching a ferry from the port of Pessada (in Kefalonia) to the port of Aghios Nikolaos (in Zakynthos). (Daily trips from May to October with Ionian Lines; approx. trip duration: 1 hr.: 30 mins). Aghios Nikolaos port is located on the north-east side of the island, about 40 minutes from Zakynthos Town.

Kanela Studios

General Information

Kanela Studios is a two-floor residence that consists of nine autonomous studios and one apartment, located inside a beautiful green garden, surrounded by olive trees, just a few steps from the beach of Alykes. Alykes village is located in the north-eastern part of Zakynthos Island (also known as Zante Island), in the Ionian Islands complex, in western Greece.

On the ground floor there are four studios, which can accommodate 2-3 persons, each with one bedroom, kitchenette, bathroom and furnished balcony. Three of the studios have a double bed and one single bed, hosting up to 3 persons and the other has one double bed hosting 2 persons.

All rooms at this level have balconies with garden or village view.

On the upper floor there is one apartment and five studios. The apartment can host up to 5 persons in two bedrooms, one with a double bed and one with 3 single beds. 3 of the studios can host 2 persons in one double bed, 1 studio can host 3 persons in 3 single beds, and the budget studio can host 1-2 persons in a semi-double bed.

Their balconies have village, garden, or partial sea view to Alykes beach.
